Over the last five years, the Out & About has changed and grown to meet the needs of our community. Two weeks ago, I announced that it was time for my tenure with this publication to end and last week was the final issue. Today the Out & About lives on thanks to Adam Moyer who has volunteered to be the new editor.

Adam is a brilliant and talented musician known to many as the acoustic portion of Key to Adam and the Sound Technician at McNemar House. (Check him out at www.youtube.com/watch?v=yOmfFtgRn68&feature=youtu.be). He brings to the table the experience of a performance artist and the passion of an advocate blended into a creative force of nature. As you can see, I am thrilled that someone with the heart and soul of an artist has volunteered to take this publication to the next level and have complete confidence that he will inform, inspire and astound us all.

I am counting on this community of readers to welcome Adam to his new role and to support his work. You can do this by continuing to send information about upcoming events, by coming out to encourage those who put on these events and to attend performances. We have an amazing amount of talent here in Upshur County and I am grateful to Adam for helping to promote and support the arts in Upshur County.

All my best,

Maria
